Employee Spotlight:

Lashonda Vaughn, Solid Waste Coordinator

“I started working for the City of Duncanville in 2018 as a Public Works Administrative Assistant. I got promoted into my current position as a Solid Waste Coordinator recently; coming into this role with 17 years of experience; I brought my experiences here to help coordinate solid waste services for our residents alongside Republic Works.

In my role, I take pleasure in ensuring that our services are effectively carried out. Interacting with residents and helping people is something I’ve always loved doing. In general, I simply love my job!

My department is currently working hard on developing a contingency plan with Republic Waste so if they get behind in Bulk or Brush pick-up for City residents in emergency situations, our community can still count on us to deliver services promptly and efficiently.

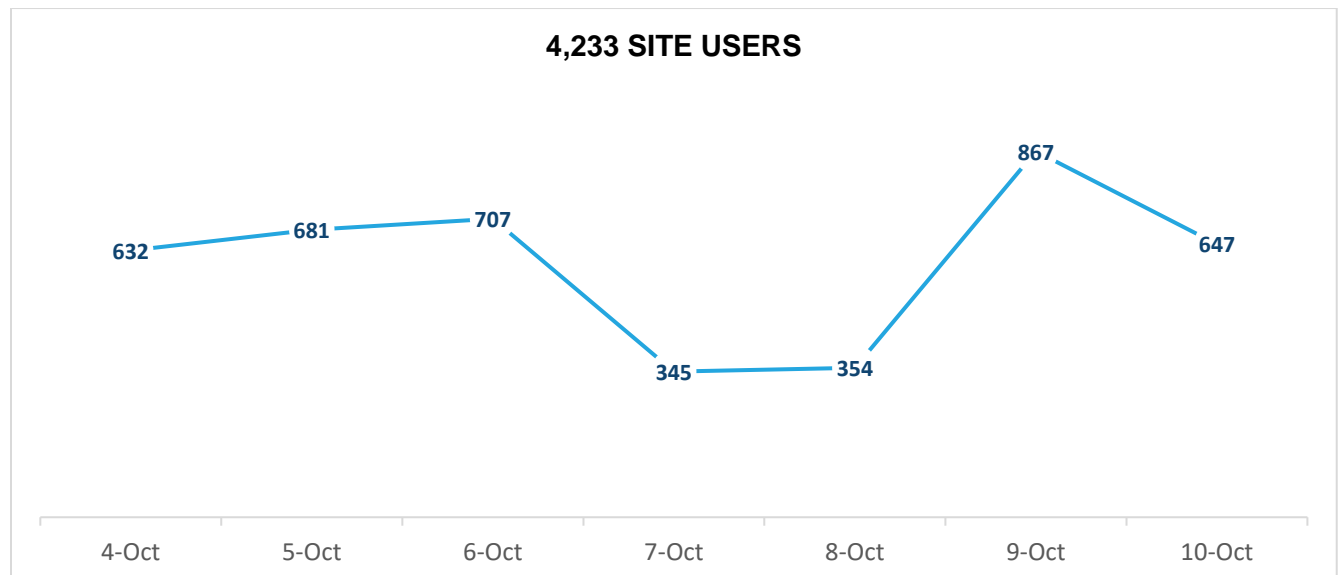

Also, I am very proud of the fact that I am presently finishing up the Leadership Program the City offers for the second time around.

A fact about myself is that I enjoy dedicating all my free time to spending quality moments and time with my children and grandchildren.”
